 Publisher Marketing: Throughout history, people have named their children truly terrible things, and this book has the proof. Michael Sherrrod and Matthew Rayback combed through U.S. federal census records to find the absolute worst names parents have given their children. The result is this hysterical new take on the baby name book. Here are some samples of the hilarious names inside: Penny Pock, Fanny Whiffer, Post Office, Warren Reaco, Rubella Graves, Nice Carr, and Hell Hellicopin. And then there are the names we thought Bart Simpson was making up as he pranked Moe's Tavern: Hugh Jess, Al Caholic, Anita Bath, Amanda Hugginkiss, and Maya Buttrees. This book is also filled with original illustrations and great photos that take a stab at what some of these babies may have looked like. Bad Baby Names is truly a one-of-a-kind book that makes a great gift for a friend, family member, or just yourself. Either way, Bad Baby Names is sure to make you laugh.

Ordering IPS Titles on ipage

Ingram Publisher Services orders operate very similarly to traditional Ingram wholesale orders.

As stated above, the Ingram Publisher Services Cart indicates that a title is distributed by IPS. This cart works much like the Quick Order Cart, however when you order through the Ingram Publisher Services Cart you are entitled to the benefits of ordering direct from the publisher.

- You should use a unique Customer PO Number for each IPS order.
- Backorder options mirror those of Ingram wholesale orders except that there is an option labeled Use my IPS default instead of Use my Order Default. Also, there is a Future Titles option that allows you to only backorder the Not Yet Published titles in your order.
- The Promotion Code box is available for entering any appropriate IPS promotion codes. (ipage will not validate promotion codes, but they will be checked when the order enters the our processing system.)
- You can choose any order type normally available to your account, with the exception of Direct to Home, which is only available by ordering from Ingram Book Company (not direct from the publisher) at this time.
- Whereas Not Yet Printed (NYP) titles always ship free-freight, choose “CE” Order Type to ensure any in-stock titles combine with your regular Ingram Book Company wholesale orders for free-freight eligibility.
- Stock Availability Check function is not available for IPS orders at this time.

The IPS Tab on ipage

On the IPS tab, you will find one single IPS Cart, which houses all IPS orders. Even though all IPS titles for an order will be contained in a single cart and a single PO, you will receive the applicable terms of sale and discounts for each individual IPS publisher.

For example, if your order contains both Applewood and Bloomberg titles, the Applewood items will receive Applewood terms and discounts, and the Bloomberg items will receive Bloomberg terms and discounts.

Publisher Pages

On the IPS tab you can also access a separate Marketing Page for each IPS publisher. Once on a publisher’s page, use the links on the left to access a comprehensive listing of that publisher’s titles and view a list of imprints.

Online Catalogs and Lists

You may also access publishers’ online catalogs from their main page or by going to the Programs & Catalogs tab, Catalog section, and clicking the Ingram Publisher Services Client Catalogs link.

Order Status

You can access your IPS order status and confirmations via a link off the IPS tab. This is similar to your normal Order Status pages, with a few exceptions:

- The order information on this page will reflect IPS orders only.
- To view your invoicing information for IPS orders, click the Account Management tab/Account Information link.

Returns Status

To access your IPS returns status information clicking the IPS Returns Status link.
